

Secure Enterprise Mail for Smarter Teamwork

Less clutter, less noise, more secure than ever. Powered by HCL Domino, HCL Verse is a proven and trusted enterprise email platform that empowers business users without exposing your organization to security risks. HCL Verse helps you better organize your day and seamlessly collaborate with your teams, allowing you to be more efficient and responsive. And with the progressive web app, HCL Verse offers you a faster and lighter mail experience with app-like interaction in your browser.

Capabilities	Benefits	Value
Safeguard your communications with enterprise-grade security.	Using HCL Domino as your mail server on-premises or in a private cloud ensures you have proven security for all of your communications.	Trusted by government institutions, your business data and employee privacy are protected.
Prioritize your day with HCL Verse smart reminders.	Identify and flag what needs action and stay on track with your most important tasks in an easy, searchable format.	Never miss a deadline or lose track of open tasks — you will always know what's a priority.
Navigation and mail functions are fully customizable, at a team and organizational level, using basic CSS and JavaScript skills.	Navigation and mail functions are fully customizable at an organizational level using basic CSS and JavaScript skills, and can be deployed at a per-server granularity.	Organizations can customize the user experience to match the look, feel, and function of the brand.
Manage your schedule and workload your way.	Check your schedule and manage your workload without leaving your inbox.	Spend more time managing priorities and less time searching for emails and

Learn more